

FEEL THE HUGS!!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 21 Sep 2009 18:08

Possibly flakiest thread in GYE's history.....

Listen,life is scary.

All of us have a lack of trust.

In the world.

In Hashem.

In ourselves.

That's why this thread is gonna change all that.

Hashem runs the world.

I know what you're all saying....

"O man.Another bitachon shmuz!"

NO!

This is the HASHEM LOVES US corner!!

Here we will come each day and share or at least acknowledge one hug that Hashem gave us that day.

And when we all feel ready,we can move up to two.

And three.

And a million.

Could be big hugs.

Small hugs.

Fat hugs.

Thin hugs.

They're all good.

The point is to just spot it and feel it!!

This is a big step in our recovery chevra!!

Who's in?

OMGosh! I cant believe I almost forgot to write this hug!

Erev YK, I was with an adopted daughter in the emergency room. We had been there all night, it was late morning Eerev YK and a long line was ahead as we waited for a certain doctor. I hid it well ,but inside I was getting a little itchy, after all, I still had to cook the seudas hamafsekes as well as a meal for after the fast, and I hadnt slept in 30 hours.

Then i noticed the woman across the room:

She was wearing a bright green shirt. Just then her husband came over to her and handed her a can of7 UP

Guard, was that you?!

I was walking home from a neighbor one night when I saw two women walking toward me. I quickly averted my eyes and looked at the ground as I walked. All of a sudden I hear my wife's voice say 'hi totty'. It was her walking together with our neighbors wife. I was surprised and just said back 'oh hi mommy! How are you.' I would have walked right by my own wife and not realized it. I was actually 'caught' doing something right for a change as opposed to something wrong. HUG!

Then I realized how weird this must have looked to my neighbor and I wasn't sure if it was a hug or a noogie!

I've done the same thing - except it was my 17-year-old daughter (walking with her friend) saying "Hi Abba!" More recently, it was my 15-year-old niece.

Kedusha and OTR,I am so very impressed.

Besides for the kiddush Hashem that you guys made,you also probably up'd the amount of respect that your wife and neice (and neighbor) have for you now.

A groisser yasher koach!

My hug this Shabbos was simply amazing to watch.

My perspective on life (thanks for the most part to you guys) has been changing so tremendously that events that took place in my life did not faze me at all like they would have.I just stood back and watched Hashem work His magic.

He sent me out of my house-a place of strife and negativity and control.

And He brought me to the home of a wonderful Rabbi and his family who have taken me in so warmly and given me all that I could possibly need until things cool off at home.

And I ran into an avrech I knew from a previous yeshiva who gave me awesome insights into my struggle.

And the list goes on and on.....

It's amazing when you step back for a second and just watch.

It's like watching a flower blossom right before your very eyes.

It starts off scary but always ends up so so beautiful.

Chag Sameach
