

FEEL THE HUGS!!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 21 Sep 2009 18:08

Possibly flakiest thread in GYE's history.....

Listen,life is scary.

All of us have a lack of trust.

In the world.

In Hashem.

In ourselves.

That's why this thread is gonna change all that.

Hashem runs the world.

I know what you're all saying....

"O man.Another bitachon shmuz!"

NO!

This is the HASHEM LOVES US corner!!

Here we will come each day and share or at least acknowledge one hug that Hashem gave us that day.

And when we all feel ready,we can move up to two.

And three.

And a million.

Could be big hugs.

Small hugs.

Fat hugs.

Thin hugs.

They're all good.

The point is to just spot it and feel it!!

This is a big step in our recovery chevra!!

Who's in?

sorry! actually that whole misunderstanding made it funnier! i think it is difficult to make jokes on forums and stuff, i once heard a stand up comic say that he wished that there could be fonts taht convey tone, like a font called sarcastica!

no one finds my jokes funny in real life either so maybe not...

The mportant thing is that YOU find your jokes funny. Really. For me, when I make a joke, that's my first priority. And I crack myself up!

I prefer if other people find it funny, too, but if not, well, at least / enjoyed it!

SB, never thought of it that way... But you've got a great point....

It's like that in everything, if you live your life for the approval of others... well..... it would be a shame...

I have just been in touch with someone who is so so lost in life....

It made me appreciate the good that I have....

Also I am thankful that Hashem is allowing me to improve and become a better healthier person....

It's what gives life meaning.... It's why I'm here...

A reminder that every 'potch' is really a hug:

the Refiners Touch:

There was a group of women studying sefer Malachi. As they were studying perek gimme! they came across pasuk gimme! which says, "He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver." This verse puzzled the women and they wondered what this statement meant about the character and nature of G-d.

One of the women offered to find out about the process of refining silver and get back to the group at their next group. That week the woman called up a silversmith and made an appointment to watch him at work. She didn't mention anything about the reason for her interest in silver beyond her curiosity about the process of refining silver. As she watched the silversmith, he held a piece of silver over the fire and let it heat up. He explained that, in refining silver, one needed to hold the silver in the middle of the fire where the flames were hottest so as to burn away all the impurities.

The woman thought about G-d holding us in such a hot spot - then she thought again about the verse, that He sits as a refiner and purifier of silver. She asked the silversmith if it was true that he had to sit there in front of the fire the whole time the silver was being refined. The man answered that yes, he not only had to sit there holding the silver, but he had to keep his eyes on the silver the entire time it was in the fire. For if the silver was left even a moment too long in the flames, it would be destroyed.

The woman was silent for a moment. Then she asked the silversmith, "How do you know when the silver is fully refined?" He smiled at her and answered, "Oh, that's the easy part -- WHEN I SEE MY IMAGE REFLECTED IN IT."

If today you are feeling the heat of the fire, remember that G-d has His eye on you and will keep His hand on you and watch over you UNTIL HE SEES HIS IMAGE IN YOU.
