

Our Israeli N'kiyim Klan-O.I.N.K

Why? it's a long story, but the truth is we don't really know what it stands for yet, so if anyone has any ideas what the roshei teivos can be, please let us know. It can be just one also, meaning either OINK or OYNK.

Yup, that is the name of our group here in Yerushalayim!!!

We, BH, got together for the second time last night. TZ, Avrom, Nitzotzeloki, Hashem's Soldier (from the olden days, soon to be on the new forum), and I, (lizhensk missed it, but he's part of it too).

It was surreal, just imagine a beautiful hill, full of grass, surrounded by trees, and in the middle.....a MUSHROOM TABLE!! (for anyone who doesn't know what that means you can ask TZ)

We had a nice conversation, about a few things, but the most important one was what the tachlis of the group was going to be, which path would we take.

We decided we'd let our larger group give us ideas and we'll discuss it next time we meet (which is, btw, hopefully every thursday night) and decide upon something.

To summerize we are asking for two suggestions,

1) What the H-E-double-hockey-stick does O.I.N.K or O.Y.N.K stand for?

2) What should the point of the meetings be?

Anyone else interested in joining is more than welcome to contact any of the above mentioned (even though there are only 6 seats at the mushroom table, we'll figure it out)

Have a GREAT shabbos!!

apparently zemmy got word that ive been sneaking out of hiding cause he sent a bunch of helicopters.

had a whole bunch of donuts, continued reading from step 2 in the 12 and 12 and talked and stuff.

due to the fact that once i put something in my knapsack i generally dont take it out till pesach, we had a book copy of the 12 and 12 and didnt have to use an unmentionable.

(if another OINKer can post something of actual substance about the meeting please do. my brains not working even the tiny amount it sometimes does)

Yes, everyone needs to make sure their phones are not bugged, and their are no hidden cameras, installed by the ex-na-nach giraffe.

just kidding!!!!, it's exactly the opposite-we needed double the chizzuk cause TZ wasn't there the first time.

Intros, check. One thing that stood out, someone asked pinchas #4 "do you come here and get chizzuk from hearing that some of us fell" (in other words, what do you get out of coming?) answer: "I come to be with people who say things that are exactly what I am going through, and I can really feel part of them"

12 and 12, talking about people who had a faith and left it, ouch, that's painful. "God didn't work out for us, he didn't do what WE wanted, I was doing fine until He decided to mix in" and how we can still reconnect, or more correctly, connect for real.

Syrian Politics

carmelized corn on Rosh Hashanah

non-prophet schools (don't teach Navi-thanks nitz)

We also discussed precocious orthopedics

ok, i'm tired so that's all for now

It wasn't me, but it's highly probable!!!

Also he spells it Twerski, with an "i".

it could have been if not that

1) I don't think any of us would call ourselves kollel yungerleit (either a rebbe, rosh kollel, mashgiach. but plain "kollel yungerman, that's boring)

2) We are all either not yet married, married under 5 years, or married well over 5 years.

3) We don't learn mussar together, just basics about human life (just for you Dov)

4) We don't normally get together twice a week.

5) none of us have been abstinent for close to a year (either less or more)

6) We BH have more than 6 people in our group

Besides for that it makes perfect sense that it was indeed one of us.

I passed our oink spot while on the sherut!!!

I am sitting here at Ben Gurion and I am scared to go back home. I have already seen more pritzus than i should i ever see. Thank God i diverted my eyes (success!) But for the short time I have been in Israel, I have done much growing. I thank you all for helping me get to this point. I feel so good to have shared my story to real people. I think from only that point can true healing begin, and it has. I feel much calmer and no i dont feel this, incredible close feeling to Hashem, even after R"H. But i have opened the doors. And as we all know,, is it really us that making this connection or is more that we open ourselves up to let Him in. Ofcourse we must do our hishtadlus but no matter how many Mitzvos we do, only Hashem determines if these are "valid" enough.

Also I have discovered that true recovery cannot take place until we fully admit that we are addicted. I am an addict and until I fully accept that i will keep falling or be atleast be a dry drunk. Of course this is the first think we say at our meetings and it is also the first thing that I say when I speak to Hashem. Admitting this fact, lets us feel powerlessness to the Yetzer and only Hashem can save us. And this feeling is ironically liberating. It frees us, allowing us to let go of this gashmius world connect to the Source.

I am truly grateful to you all, as you saved my life andI hope to be back in Israel as soon as possible

Daniel

'twas AWESOME knowing you Daniel Pinchas#8!!!!!!!!!

Here's my OINK update: Throughout Rosh HaShana I was feeling very grateful to Hashem for all he had done for me in the past year, most specifically for bringing me to OINK. Anyway, second night during the meal my five-year-old-niece began humming to herself- out of the blue "Oink oink piggy piggy" her mother [as well as mine] was mortified... I grabbed her and began dancing with her, all around the dining room singing at the top of our lungs OINK OINK PIGGY PIGGY

My mother didn't know what to make of it: Rosh Hashana beinacht?!?!?

Too bad...
