

Our Israeli N'kiyim Klan-O.I.N.K

Posted by Pidaini - 05 Jul 2013 18:00

Why? it's a long story, but the truth is we don't really know what it stands for yet, so if anyone has any ideas what the roshei teivos can be, please let us know. It can be just one also, meaning either OINK or OYNK.

Yup, that is the name of our group here in Yerushalayim!!!

We, BH, got together for the second time last night. TZ, Avrom, Nitzotzeloki, Hashem's Soldier (from the olden days, soon to be on the new forum), and I, (lizhensk missed it, but he's part of it too).

It was surreal, just imagine a beautiful hill, full of grass, surrounded by trees, and in the middle.....a MUSHROOM TABLE!! (for anyone who doesn't know what that means you can ask TZ)

We had a nice conversation, about a few things, but the most important one was what the tachlis of the group was going to be, which path would we take.

We decided we'd let our larger group give us ideas and we'll discuss it next time we meet (which is, btw, hopefully every thursday night) and decide upon something.

To summerize we are asking for two suggestions,

1) What the H-E-double-hockey-stick does O.I.N.K or O.Y.N.K stand for?

2) What should the point of the meetings be?

Anyone else interested in joining is more then welcome to contact any of the above mentioned (even though there are only 6 seats at the mushroom table, we'll figure it out)

Have a GREAT shabbos!!

first of all, we might have a phone in the middle conferencing in our beloved eagles and crossed-out cameras that cant join us for future meetings.

Second, a little birdie tells me that Dov wants to join too, but hes afraid of Zemmy's heat-seeking missiles. Oh well, i guess we have to wait for the colder months to come around when we're all freezing so the heat-seeking missiles wont find us.

i feel like im in the "in-crowd" last night we had a meeting at duvid chaim's house. there was iced tea and sunflower seeds, both from texas, parve cheetos, wafers and cookies. pidaini attended via phone (and spend most of his time trying to get at the seeds through the phone) some stuff we spoke about:

asking G-d to direct our thinking (Alcoholics Anonymous page 86)

switching expectations to preferences

addict vs. non addict giving vs. taking

What about the painting on the wall of me?

Didn't you take a picture Lizzie?

If I may add,

"if there is TENSE, past-TENSE (resentments) and/or future-TENSE (fears) then there is no "present" (ever heard of present-tense? me neither), but if there is just the past and just the future then we are truly in the present"

From Duvid Chaim

sorry sorry. sheesh!

ok here goes.

lizhensk found us a meeting place! (no mushroom tables tho) we started off with some suggestions lizhensk got from dov on how to make things more serious/effective/organized. kinda ironically i dont remember ever having as much clowning around ever. i needed it tho so that makes everything okay. we discussed that the ikkar is honesty. if we are honest with each other than we can be honest with ourselves allowing us to be honest with Hashem. being Honest with Hashem allows us to develop a REAL relationship with Him which is what keeps us sober and is also very awesome and cool and the purpose of our existence. then each of shared what was going on with us. i had to leave early (coming late, leaving early?! i should be ashamed of myself!)

thats what i got on the meeting

So, here comes the part that Grandpa missed when he came late and left early:

After walking thru an abandoned construction site, with gates falling down around it, we found ourselves in a park, and soon thereafter somehow found ourselves in a shul. Avrom immediately took a liking to the stained glass windows, but held himself back from making too much fun of the shul. We had a small crowd last night due to Pidaini being busy with the non-english accent, BenD was busy protesting kevarim digging, and HashemsSoldier was busy Skep however found time after learning to chap some hisorerus.

We also set kind of a schedule for every meeting. We're first gonna have intros, when everyone introduces themselves, no sharing yet. Then We're gonna have 10-20 minutes (the exact amount of time must be voted on) of reading thru the 12 steps and discussing how to apply it to real-life. And then we share our experiences. Dov gave us some great advice. The main thing is like Grandpa said, honesty. Second was, we SHARE, we dont advise and we dont teach. We do not refer to people as "you should do this" we say "When i had a similar situation, this is how i reacted". We applied it, and it worked out great im speaking for myself here.

being HAPPY
We ended off with a vort from some Rebbe (this is what i got out of the story, k?) how sadly in today's days, nobody really believes in Hashgacha Pratis unless their life was really messed)

TZ says he doesnt agree with all of the above, tho he does agree to some. It will be up for discussion by our next meeting. So im hereby not taking responsibility for this part of my post
