

Our Israeli N'kiyim Klan-O.I.N.K

Posted by Pidaini - 05 Jul 2013 18:00

Why? it's a long story, but the truth is we don't really know what it stands for yet, so if anyone has any ideas what the roshei teivos can be, please let us know. It can be just one also, meaning either OINK or OYNK.

Yup, that is the name of our group here in Yerushalayim!!!

We, BH, got together for the second time last night. TZ, Avrom, Nitzotzeloki, Hashem's Soldier (from the olden days, soon to be on the new forum), and I, (lizhensk missed it, but he's part of it too).

It was surreal, just imagine a beautiful hill, full of grass, surrounded by trees, and in the middle.....a MUSHROOM TABLE!! (for anyone who doesn't know what that means you can ask TZ)

We had a nice conversation, about a few things, but the most important one was what the tachlis of the group was going to be, which path would we take.

We decided we'd let our larger group give us ideas and we'll discuss it next time we meet (which is, btw, hopefully every thursday night) and decide upon something.

To summerize we are asking for two suggestions,

1) What the H-E-double-hockey-stick does O.I.N.K or O.Y.N.K stand for?

2) What should the point of the meetings be?

Anyone else interested in joining is more then welcome to contact any of the above mentioned (even though there are only 6 seats at the mushroom table, we'll figure it out)

Have a GREAT shabbos!!

so our OINK group is growing and evolving. we started doing the 12 steps in a group format.

in other news, most of us went to the conference in yerushalayim. there many people who did not know that our group exists found out about us. now we as a group have some decisions to make. may Hashem guide us.

i posted this on my thread and realized that it might be shayech to the group thread as well

OK, yes, as written above BIG DRASTIC CHANGES!!!!

We are BH gettig to work, we have together gone through the doctor's opinion, and as of last night we sort of, for the time being, wrapped up bill's story!!

We have grown in numbers (I hope not too many) may Hashem help us all feel comfortable with each other and be able to be open and honest with each other.

In the past two meetings we had some very interesting discussions, about our relationships with Hashem (or lack thereof). Last night we discussed a little bit how even though lust is much more natural of a desire than alchohol, we still have abused the normal desire and have been taking double, triple, if not quadruple, dips. (not heimish gemacht tomato dip).

May Hashem continue to guide us in the right direction, as He has done so wonder-fully* until now!!

Very interesting meeting today. You guys got to hear all of TZ's accomplishments and how there is NO WAY such an accomplished guy is going to keep falling [like he did on Shabbos] all the way until he's sixty (by which time he'll have myriad other accomplishments [a three story shul-Yankel? Bruchi?]).

But Surprise! He's sick!

Not bad at all.

Still accomplished [minimum effort maximum results!]

Just sick

Following a simple program of action can help him. Amen.

Well Well Well, we can't have everyone thinking that that's all we did yesterday!!

So yesterday was a great meeting (at lease I thought so)!! It wasn't too serious, yet there was a lot of tachlis discussed!! We (were supposed to have)read "there is a solution" in the AA Big Book, and write down what we related to.

We then went through the question, some of them very thought provoking, one of the main ones being "did your [lusicism] touch "all those whose lives touched the sufferer's"?

At first some of us said "no", most of the people who lives touched us, don't even know about it!!! But we then remembered how many times we let people down from things we told them we'd do "when I'm finished", how many times we were in bad moods, how many times we didn't give them the attention they deserved.....it ended up in a resounding "YES" even for those who don't know!!

next question "what was their reaction" was a little more dificult but inna kindly pointed out that there was a massive loss of trust, and others added that their family knows not to ask them for help when something really needs to get done. I remember my mother asking me "why are you so slow about everything that I ask you to do?"

More to come Wednesday ly"h

Amazing that this thread hasn't ben erased in all the time that it's been quiet!!!

Thanx for the synopsis leader!

BH, OINK has been getting together twice a week for some time now. We have been going through the book and most of us (excluding I and some others) have done their 4th and 5th step.

Yesterday we started reading further in the Big Book, chapter 6, and Pidiani and Lizhensk shared similar experiences of people that thye couldn't talk to normally because they were afraid that maybe those people knew of certain falls, but after finally accepting that they may indeed know, we were able to have a normal relationship with them.

Triple D brought up a discussion of "Do I really want to stop?". A question that everyone really has to ask themselves honestly before really doing anything.

We also discussed what "hitting rock bottom" means.

These topics are still up for discussion, and if anyone has anything to share about them, please do not hesitate to post them here.

Tz said to Triple-D. I don't really want to stop. I never will. "The man I once was drank, The man I once was will drink again."

The man I hope to become will never want another drink
