

Our Israeli N'kiyim Klan-O.I.N.K

Posted by Pidaini - 05 Jul 2013 18:00

Why? it's a long story, but the truth is we don't really know what it stands for yet, so if anyone has any ideas what the roshei teivos can be, please let us know. It can be just one also, meaning either OINK or OYNK.

Yup, that is the name of our group here in Yerushalayim!!!

We, BH, got together for the second time last night. TZ, Avrom, Nitzotzeloki, Hashem's Soldier (from the olden days, soon to be on the new forum), and I, (lizhensk missed it, but he's part of it too).

It was surreal, just imagine a beautiful hill, full of grass, surrounded by trees, and in the middle.....a MUSHROOM TABLE!! (for anyone who doesn't know what that means you can ask TZ)

We had a nice conversation, about a few things, but the most important one was what the tachlis of the group was going to be, which path would we take.

We decided we'd let our larger group give us ideas and we'll discuss it next time we meet (which is, btw, hopefully every thursday night) and decide upon something.

To summerize we are asking for two suggestions,

1) What the H-E-double-hockey-stick does O.I.N.K or O.Y.N.K stand for?

2) What should the point of the meetings be?

Anyone else interested in joining is more then welcome to contact any of the above mentioned (even though there are only 6 seats at the mushroom table, we'll figure it out)

Have a GREAT shabbos!!

thank you

"rock bottom" is an issue I mentioned before regarding myself; I came onto this site after hitting it once; I then hit it again.

Regarding the concept of "it's fun," I just had that last night. I had seen a movie where there was a sexual scene, and I wanted to see it again (actually I wanted to hear two seconds of it), and I clicked on it, and then at that instant, I received a phone call....nu nu...I'm not the biggest bashert kinda guy, but after the call, I began the process again, and this is what went thru my mind: I don't really wanna do this....but it's fun and enjoyable....is it really? yes it is....but it's not good for me....and with that, I held back and shut it down.

God has been good to me.

I thank Him.

Tz said to Triple-D. I don't really want to stop. I never will. "The man I once was drank, The man I once was will drink again."

The man I hope to become will never want another drink pidaini seemed to disagree about being a different man, no?

I don't know, (I think) that's getting into the discussion of "once an addict, always an addict" which I don't care for. If we're living one day at a time, what difference does it make right now if I will still be an addict in 20 years from now?

I did forget to mention that TZ shared that he realized that the 12 steps isn't a way of dealing with the problems of life, rather it is a tool on how to really enjoy the enjoyment of life.

thanks pid.

I always thought that if I achieve tools to deal with problems Hashem's going to give me even more problems, after all, I have the tools to deal with them. Now I realize that they're tools for enjoying life, and so Hashem is giving me even more enjoyment!

this applies to GYE in general but definitely to OINK: www.aish.com/jt/Jtube-Tripp-and-Tyler-A-Conference-Call-in-Real-Life.html (its a little slow in the beginning but it picks up in the middle)
