

Our Israeli N'kiyim Klan-O.I.N.K

Posted by Pidaini - 05 Jul 2013 18:00

Why? it's a long story, but the truth is we don't really know what it stands for yet, so if anyone has any ideas what the roshei teivos can be, please let us know. It can be just one also, meaning either OINK or OYNK.

Yup, that is the name of our group here in Yerushalayim!!!

We, BH, got together for the second time last night. TZ, Avrom, Nitzotzeloki, Hashem's Soldier (from the olden days, soon to be on the new forum), and I, (lizhensk missed it, but he's part of it too).

It was surreal, just imagine a beautiful hill, full of grass, surrounded by trees, and in the middle.....a MUSHROOM TABLE!! (for anyone who doesn't know what that means you can ask TZ)

We had a nice conversation, about a few things, but the most important one was what the tachlis of the group was going to be, which path would we take.

We decided we'd let our larger group give us ideas and we'll discuss it next time we meet (which is, btw, hopefully every thursday night) and decide upon something.

To summerize we are asking for two suggestions,

1) What the H-E-double-hockey-stick does O.I.N.K or O.Y.N.K stand for?

2) What should the point of the meetings be?

Anyone else interested in joining is more then welcome to contact any of the above mentioned (even though there are only 6 seats at the mushroom table, we'll figure it out)

Have a GREAT shabbos!!

GS told me he knows you

why are you scared to see someone you know?

i understand that people are afraid it's normal bear in mind it's something we both suffer from so nobody will think you're a monster or a bad guy or whatever

Seein' someone you know can be scarier than seein' someone you don't know.

The last time I faced it was 3 years ago

It is not the same as admitting it on an forum behind a fake name or on a phone

I still do not understand the term addicted non-addict

The way I see myself is a normal guy with a big y"h sounds good

as for the alcohol i was kidding even though i know that woodford is the official drink (how much did woodford pay to be advertised to a bunch of Jewish addicts?) of GYE

i can't really drink either that leaves only our third little piggy but a real man doesn't drink alone...

unless we recruited more devarim acheirim for our meeting
