Hey guys,

How can I become a sponsor or accountability partner for someone. Please advise how the process works!

Thanks.

I have found that it is best to just "hang out" here and make "friends". You can PM, call, and even meet eventually. That may sound kind of boring, but it works!

Ditto that. I would just add one thing to that, sign up for the GYE chatting feature, it's a great way to get comfortable with some of the chevra here.
