Have you left us on our own?!

I miss him too. At least I still get the daily emails with his dov of the day column.

this line from yesterday's was a great one:

Unexpectedly discovering the very pleasure I was really looking for in the sex, in calm and friendly cuddling is a life-changing experience. It's nice to discover I am an idiot, and I always thought that obviously the raunchier and dirtier, the more satisfying it will be... Lust makes us fools.

Dov we eagerly await your return

Made contact with the Bear. Reports that he is well but very busy. How many signatures do we need to get him to come back?
