

Doing business with women...what to do?

Posted by redfire - 29 Dec 2014 03:59

Ok I'm going back to work tomorrow, my issue is I do business with ALOT of women due to the business that I'm in. Almost everyday I come across a women I find attractive. Now I feel that it's proper to look at someone in the face when speaking to them. Being the case I sometimes find my mind wandering about the female I am talking to. Please!!! Some advice of things that work for you when you are in a similar situation. I would really love to talk to them and not have my mind go "there". Thanks.

Do you think of women or fantasize when there is no woman before you?

do you find yourself lustin' in general?

i used to work with beautiful women for about ten years

direct sales for women customers

if you understand that they want your help in achieving whatever they want, and you focus on serving and giving them whatever it is they want to buy from you, however they dress is not dressed for you to amaze them, its just the way that they enjoy dressing, even when they dress attractively or even immodestly, its still not done for you to attract them, its just for them to make themselves feel good when dressed like that every single women coming to you, has a goal of getting from you whatever they want, (by the way, its usually the other way around, the plain-looking women are down to earth people, with good communications, straight to the point people, and the dressy-smelly ones are usually all mixed up people, they dont know what they want, they need you to decide for them what they want)

also one more point, avoiding eye contact is a great help, it can be done bezras hashem

I am not such a luster a little here and there once in a while I think in the normal realm.

I like the idea of realizing that the only reason they are in front of me is to do business and not to talk to me per se. I tried the no eye contact thing but I felt very unprofessional and to be honest I feel it's disrespectful.

Like you said, remember what you (and they) are there for, and stick to the mission at hand. Interact with them the same way you would anyone else, with respect. I don't see why you shouldn't make eye contact.

I think the answer lies in the rest of the day; not while the woman is before you.

If we are cleared from lustin' beforehand, talkin' to a woman will not bother us.

It is when we are still in the throes of lust that it becomes a problem.

What have we done to better ourselves?

If we look at her, and we idolize, objectify, fantasize, etc., we did not do our job beforehand.

sometimes it might help to tell de wife:

honey i saw a very attractive lady today, i need you tonight please, it will help me

the main thing is, dont make the women objects! keep them as human beings

Shmichel you May be right

But I'd like to maybe suggest another point of view to what your proposing, the wife might think after hearing that , so I'm only good as a pinch hitter after he's got himself all worked up.

Dunno maybe yeah maybe no. chanoch l'har al pe darko whatever works

Shmichel, what about when wife is niddah?

Also I'd rather not get to the point of needing it so bad to admit to my wife I've been thinking about other women.

I would say what works for me

Having less eye contact, I mean only less.

I think with time she will feel it, and she will get the hint if your really sincere.

I also try being Tachlis and to the point.
