

Teens & Twenties, the greatest Battle!

Posted by shalom18 - 30 Jan 2020 18:50

If you are in your teens and twenties & are even one or two days clean, that is a Massive accomplishment! Do not belittle it. I remember what life was like in my teens and twenties. The Yetzer Hara drove me crazy. And now I am 37 years old, 25 days clean. But your 1 or 2 days clean are likely greater than my 25 days. so be proud of yourself. You are a true warrior of Hashem. You make the soldiers in todays physical armies seem small. Your battle makes the World Wars pale in comparison. Be Proud and let that healthy pride drive you to more clean days & greater accomplishment!
