

HOW DID YOU FIND OUT ABOUT GYE? - (oh, and Where are you from?)

Posted by the.guard - 15 Dec 2009 12:05

I think it would be very enlightening for us to know HOW you found out about us.

- Was it an on-line ad? If so, where?
- Was it a printed ad? What mag/newspaper?
- Was it an article about us? Where?
- A flyer someone hung up somewhere?
- Did you find it on Google by chance?
- Word of mouth?
- Therapist?
- Mashgiach?
- etc...

And if you are not too afraid of anonymity issues, it would also be nice to know WHERE you live... So for example, if people could post on this thread something like this:

"Where What When" magazine - Baltimore

- Did you find it on Google while looking for bad stuff?
or something like that.

Thanks guys!

I found it the same way as Rage. Looks like Google is it's own remedy an ad on janglo, back in Jan 2009. Said something like "purity and morality". IT looked weird. I clicked on it and I thought I was at some breslov site. I clicked around and closed it. Two weeks later I saw the same ad, and I said it looked familiar. And I clicked on it again. Oh its the breslover's again, I said. For the next few weeks I used to visit GYE (or shall I say GUE) after my evening activities until finally I got an intense inspiration from above to remove myself from sin.

well i had this site listed on www.4torah.com . it's a "whitelisted" kosher search engine. but it has some flaws (in fumkeit). Basicly they only add frum sites to the thing, and it uses google search. the problem is that this site needs to come-up first on a search about "internet addiction". Anyone have an idea how to solve that?

oh yeh, and did anyone find us on that site?????

Either Arizona, Texas, or Colorado.

Did I get it?
