Posted by chizuk613613 - 12 Apr 2022 00:48

Hi! Wanted to know if there's anyone out there married to a woman who suffered from sexual abuse to connect to, in connection to the struggles involved with intimacy etc, and how that's effected one's overall ????? ????? etc. Or truth be told, anything else connected to the topic could be major benefit as well.

Kol tuv,

Welcome. I saw something about this in the q and a section of the articles tab. I think it was called "abused, married, and hate s with my husband"
