Welcome to GYE!

The first step is to celebrate the fact that you posted on GYE and you're reaching out for help. This in itself is a big part of recovery. Many people don't realize that they have a problem and even those who do, don't always reach out to be helped.

I would suggest checking out guardyoureyes.com/gyehandbook and our amazing F2F program...

One very important point is that anyone who has tried to quit watching and acting out before knows that it is a lot harder to do alone. This is because porn etc feeds off of our isolation and makes it harder and harder to get help. Even though it's hard, involving important people in our journey to recovery is a HUGE step in recovery. Remember, the addiction is a prison built on secrets, lies, shame, and isolation. Every time you open up to someone in honesty and love you are breaking down another chunk of those walls. Keep at it until you are free and there is nothing but a pile of rubble behind you.

We're looking forward to hearing more from you and to join along in your great successes ahead!
