Schedule for the next few days:

We will be starting Appendix A: The Yetzer Hara in Our Brain

Tuesday: Pages 345-347

Wednesday: Pages 348-350

Thursday: Pages 351-353

Friday: Pages 354-356

Yom Tov: Pages 357-360

How to know whether Appendix A is for you:

Do you relate to any of the following? (Takes from pages 351-352)

“I am a failure. The sin I just did makes me worthless. I am off the derech, exactly like those who have rejected everything. I am just as bad. I am a sinner.

“I should have controlled myself. I could have done better. If I had just pushed myself harder, I would have won the battle. It would have been so simple for me to control myself had I tried harder, but I blew it again! I should have much more control over myself.

“I am so ashamed. I’m embarrassed to even go near anybody. Anyone who would know what I did would look down on me. Nobody would empathize with me about my struggles, not that there is much to empathize with anyway. Everybody does much better than me. I am probably the only person who does these things. No one else sins in this area, and I give in left and right. I am messed up.

“All the good I ever did is meaningless because I did this huge sin. I am horrible. How hard I fought and my effort to change myself is irrelevant; my sin is all that matters.

“Even though I labored and managed to control myself for the past two days, two weeks, or two months, that is worthless. I am the same out of control person I always was. All my effort was a waste; I’m just as horrible as I was before.

“Besides, any good I did doesn’t count because I was obligated to do it anyway. All that matters is falling short — which I just did when I violated my obligations.

“I bet Hashem is furious with me. He hates me and has rejected me. It is hopeless! He will always look down on me. Even if I do teshuva, Hashem won’t accept it. It’s impossible to undo something this severe. I did it; how can I get rid of it?

“Further, what happened is all my fault. I brought everything upon myself when I befriended those people and experimented with these sins. Had I controlled myself then, things would be so easy. If I didn’t watch those movies and hang out with those friends, I would still be pure. I activated my desires.

“And now that I have awakened my temptations, it is too late. I can’t stop myself. I am incapable, as I just proved. I do these things. I am an addict and I will never regain control, no matter what I do. I can’t even improve the situation. I’m doomed.”

The Yetzer Hara's devious strategy.

And how to figure out whether our inner voice is being manipulated by the Yetzer Hara to make us feel bad about ourselves so he can overpower us.

"Even though I labored and managed to control myself for the past two days, two weeks, or two months, that is worthless. I am the same out of control person I always was. All my effort was a waste; I'm just as horrible as I was before"

Resonates x 100!!!

Every time I fall - that little voice says "I am just the same out of control person I always was"

Bam - all of my work smashed to smithereens

This is one of the Yetzer Hara's sickest tricks. Then A) bam 5 falls in 3 days. And B) a loss of interest and motivation to fight.

Check out the Appendix for more.

Painful thoughts caused by the yetzer hara. And how to realize that they are lies.

Also I found this line inspiring: "Could it be that the One Who created desire and gave us our challenges doesn't know how hard they are?"
