This question was actually posed in reference to a shidduch:

girl's mother: "If he were an animal what animal would he be?"

reference: "what?....I mean excuse me???"

potential shvigger: "Oh...let me explain. my daughter, if she were to be reincarnated as an animal would probably be a giraffe. What animal would this bachur be...in your opinion" reference:" are you kidding? do you have any other questions???"

potential chassan:"well what animal did you say?"

A Yaduah

rashi....they would take the bone of an animal who name was yadua and put it on their tounge..... and that;s how you do necromancy (speaking to spirits)....

the twist in rashi is that he isn't telling you "everyone knows the animal's name". no he's telling you it's name!
