it would be an excellent idea, going across the ocean to nevardek to learn missur & derech hashem, keeping above the water, and staying dry & clean, this is my struggle now at the moment, i am thinking to add some hovercraft engines to my truck, do you know where i can get them?

i zoomed into the picture and it looks like it doesn't really exist. so if you find it and figure out how to maneuver it over to barditchev, no problem!

if the tisch is in the shteeble though you don't have to drive it anywhere as long as it's in the world.

What do you mean it doesn't exist? The picture exists in my computer, on my screen and yours and anyone else who looks at it. In fact there's a whole squadron of GYE hovertrucks taking over the internet as we speak..... ;D ;D ;D
