Every time I see a trigger, I'm reminded of GYE!

One of the biggest motivations for me to stay strong is that I would feel like I let you guys down if I slipped. Pathetic isn't it?

Gevura!

Oh sorry this was supposed to be a fun thread :-[

Me too. Whatever works. All that matters is the score when the final whistle blows.

Last night I had a bad cold or something and I could not sleep for hours. I finally fell asleep, and I dreamed of the Heilige Guard! he was dressed just like his picture, in a long red Bekishe and that tall tall Shtreimel.

He did not speak to me, but motioned that i should follow him around. I followed him as he went in and out of a bunch of shuls and rebbes houses, putting up posters and talking to people. At one point we got on a train that climbed a long long hill up into the sky....

sure beats some of the other dreams I used to have....

YES!! MY DREAM-PROJECTION MACHINE WORKS!!!

seems like he has a Conscious-Thought-Control-Venjrabulatorizer in beta testing and you were Ur doing it wrong. The only way to walk a tightrope is to look ahead and focus on the destination, like the guy at the top of the page. If you look back, or get distracted by things to the side like your guy, you will surely fall.....

Anybody know the origin of the 'trucking' goin on on GYE. Who was the originator etc? Maybe someone should do a profile on the origins of 'trucking'.

I'm pretty sure bardichev started it. We will have to ask our GYE historian to give us the exact citation. Zemmy?

dunno exactly when, and i am not an old-timer here, but it seems pretty clear that Bards is the trucking originator on GYE, to his everlasting credit.

(the term did exist since the 1930's, but obviously not in the GYE context)
