A few reminders over sukkos.

All the people holding their lulavim reminded me of guard, especially from the back.

I found some TEGALACH at the store. see here

I went to a vort and there was WOODFORD!

It's good to be back and not need to be "reminded" of GYE.

This just in.... In an email from my local library. With the attached picture!

Beep-Beep

Recite truck nursery rhymes, dance to truck songs and read books about trucks at this truck-themed preschool story time.

Just what we need!
