

O'Mottel's Kitchen

Posted by obormottel - 02 Nov 2011 23:29

It seems that a lot of us here suffer from malnutrition, which tends to bring about depression and other machlas of the mind. I mean, how are you gonna feel good about yourself, when you're 30 pounds overweight, and you don't even have an excuse of a recent pregnancy?

So pile in, and if you're sick of cholint and kishke, I'll set you up with a nutritious meal that is inexpensive and good for you at the same.

Oh, and we do give out complimentary drink tickets to Bardy's Pub with each meal. You may have to check with Bards, though, if he'll honor them for anything other than a shot of Crapowitz.

Mazel tov!

Alternate pizza and soy hotdogs and your kids will love you.

Previously frozen cholent makes a quick meal.

Can you cook pasta? Instant mashed potatoes?

You can do it!

I was at a Bar Mitzva in a Las Vegas hotel once, and they had a guy at the the dessert table, serving banana slices that he fried in front of you in burning rum. Quite a show, but nothing spectacular as far as the taste.

BOT, cholen latkes! Yum! (I did puke a little bit in my mouth, but once you get over the initial)

See now w/ that there's no kasha from the bais yosef. Everyone knows that a flaming latkele is a miracle even on the first night.

Re the hungarian lady: its only a hungarian meal of she reminded you (incessantly) not to get her (italian marble) floors dirty.
