

O'Mottel's Kitchen

Posted by obormottel - 02 Nov 2011 23:29

It seems that a lot of us here suffer from malnutrition, which tends to bring about depression and other machlas of the mind. I mean, how are you gonna feel good about yourself, when you're 30 pounds overweight, and you don't even have an excuse of a recent pregnancy?

So pile in, and if you're sick of cholint and kishke, I'll set you up with a nutritious meal that is inexpensive and good for you at the same.

Oh, and we do give out complimentary drink tickets to Bardy's Pub with each meal. You may have to check with Bards, though, if he'll honor them for anything other than a shot of Crapowitz.

This is how I broke my fast, hope you enjoy it, too:

A sandwich of wholewheat bread with pastrami lox, thick tomato slices, and a horseraddish mayo from a squeeze bottle for a shmear.

Grilled veggie medley: slices of eggplant, zucchini, three colors of bell peppers, and onions, seasoned with salt and pepper and grilled on cast iron grill.

Apple cake

Orange Juice

Coffee

Coffee

And then I had some coffee.

Mini-bar of white chocolate.

And since there isn't much cooking going on in the kitchen, would you turn down the light and lock the freezer?

the goy can do that, i'm here to turn on the ovens

"When you wake up in the morning, Pooh," said Piglet at last, "what's the first thing you say to yourself?"

"What's for breakfast?" said Pooh. "What do you say, Piglet?"

"I say, I wonder what's going to happen exciting today?" said Piglet.

Pooh nodded thoughtfully. "It's the same thing," he said."
