

GYE...SKYPE 'face to face' or just free calling

Anonimity is a powerfull thing, it feeds our addiction (how else could such chushuva yidden get into such horrible shmuts?). For any members who would be interested in taking their sobriety to a new level, I openly invite you to create an "anonymous" skype user, just write "guardyoureyes.com" as your 'Full name' (there are already alot of "gye" in india). For your skype username please use your exact gye username from the forum, or at least what we know you as.

I already signed up. Shmiras, and I got webcam!

It's still more anon than live SA groups, where we would all belong is gye didn't exist, so not to get worried. Afraid to meet the guy who sits next to you in shul? mybe his username is barditchev... are you still afraid?

If this crazy idea works, we could start doing the 12 ste conferences through it.

I like it.

It's a stage between phone conferences and live groups...

Maybe we should develop such an option one day on GYE... Webcam groups or something...

I have thought abt this too. The one thing that complicates it quite honestly is that someone could tape it. Not comfortable thought.

Mybe they can tape it, and ??? ??? SA groups can always tell people what your problems are. take me for example, a very close family freind of my wife, and my neibor 2 floors under me, is in my SA group. Embarrassing, oh yeh! lemaiseh we have to make sure not to walk back into the building together afterwards, so his wife won't see who else is a sexaholic.

I'm not making fun, just lemaiseh in shamayim all will see!!! (as one menuval once put it, they watch porn in shayim, becuase they see what he does)

Did anyone create a GYE skype user?

my webcam lets me put-on a mask, so I can still keep anon ;D

SHMIRAS if you're wondering why the oilam hasn't joined you-

MOVE THE THREAD OUT OF JUST HAVING FUN

the only thing ppl take serious here is cholint

and possums

and muffins

whatever
