

Hebrew in America

Posted by tehillimzugger - 24 Jan 2012 14:21

There is a debate about whether the government of the fledgling USA considered adopting Hebrew as their country's official language. [see [url=http://jewsandjoes.com/did-benjamin-franklin-propose-hebrew-as-the-national-language-of-america.html]here[/url] and here]

I got to thinking, what would it have looked like. This is my first thought:

,?????, ????? ??????

???????? ???

?? ????? ????

???? ??????????-

how would the brits have written Yankee Doodle?

first we gotta understand what the song means, see here.

????? ??????? ????? ????

???? ?? ????

??? ????? ??????

you didn't understand what the song means first :

also [lishi tascha] why didn't u ask bout "ploini almoini"?

... and when did the pony turn into a "chamor"? I assumed it just rhymed better with "sar"

exactly my point

if you understand that chamor can replace pony, you have to agree that macaroni is saryou have to check the sources i provide!

now write 500 times "I will look up all of TZ's sources"

I'm letting you off easy and not making you write "TehylimZugger" cuz it's your first time

you didn't understand what the song means first :
