berditchev?

have u never been in a chassidishe shteible??

theres always 2 different minyanim going on at the same time till 4 its mincha and shacharis

then from then on its mincha and maariv

the best is this sfardi shteible by the bucharian shuk

the chassidim in the area always hit it up so its quite funny to see the diff minhyanim going on ur

: we can say tehillim any time during the day, right?(as opposed to shacharis and mincha which we have time difference issues with). Or to sing tehillim! Uri, when are you composing a song using a pasuk from tehillim? maybe.....um.....one second (i riffle through my tehillim).....maybe "gam ki elech?" wadaya think?

english is so much longer, sheesh!

youre talking about musayoff rigt? man that place is awesome, where else can you get mincha and a falafel at 9 oclock at night? trivia question: what does the musayoff shul and iceland have in common?

letakain,

shkoyach on the ivris...

and, uri, you totally ignored the fact that rebbe write a post entirely in hebrew!

and rebbe,

you should what it's like here in the morning for us Israelis..., spooky quiet is an understatement!!
