Bards,

Can you lend me your Rabbeinu Tam Tefillin?

[I modified this post after someone was kind enough to educate me what the other term means. I think that use of the term is an utter sacrilege! >:(>:(>:(]

[Yosef - if you want to put the term back in this post, please put it under your own name, not mine. I, honestly, don't want to be associated with it. ;)]

Many have wondered where the term came from. Some have suggested that it is because it is usually the same people who use both...

Some things I'd rather not learn!

Now, back to my question, Bards. Shkiya is coming up! Are they Ksav Arizal or Ksav Bais Yosef?

1.) I follow Rav Eliashiv, Shlita, who says you're always fine if you use Ksav Bais Yosef.

2.) The first opinion of Rabbeinu Tam has nothing to do with the second.

Will we sing the Bobover Mah ashiv.

Extra credit question: How many times is the word 'Mah' repeated?
