

GYE Haiku

Posted by reallygettingthere - 19 Nov 2012 19:20

fighting lions daily

replacing lust with meaning

Woodford as backup

(ok, way too serious. Anyone with a sense of humor want to try?)

the woods are

where the great trees

stand bare

(tu bishvat and groundhog day season - let's get ready for a REBIRTH!!!!!!!!!!)

We put on a mask

To cover our outside face

And our true self shines

(disclaimer: this needs to be in non-haiku form)

There is a post on Matzav.com, quoting R' Vozner in response to the question if a non chossid can wear a streimel for davening on Purim

"Rav Vosner says that the exterior garments of a person are not what the halacha is concerned about. Standing in front of important people refers to one's demeanor and attitude. It refers to the way one stands before the King of all kings. Thus, in this case, if one is davening with respect and seriousness and in accordance with the halacha, and one's head is covered k'halacha, then, says Rav Vosner, it doesn't make a difference what kind of hat or clothing one is wearing."

On Purim, the time when we supposed to look beyond the surface to recognize Hakadosh Baruch Hu's presence, we also look beyond whatever facades people may be presenting and focus on seeing the presence of HKB'H that is present in every person.

Maybe that's one more reason we say "kol haposhet yad, nosnim lo" efsher...

Haiku has three lines

Five, seven, five syllables

Nothing else to it.
