and there is the story that r' gakinski said he was once in NYC when he heard "Minche Minche" he went to check where they want to make a minyan. when he saw a beautiful shul he wasn't sure. too fancy to be charedi... probably reform.... so he asked the rov what kind of ppl davening there. the rov told him i can't answer you i can only tell you a story. one of the mispalelim came over to him erev yom kipur with $1K to get kohen... the rov said i can't sell you kohen... that not for sale! so the guy said. rabbi, in today's world (???? ???? ?? ???, ok he didn't know this posuk but he said it in his words) everything boils down to money. you want $2K? the rov asked again may i offer you maftir? so the guy said excuse me rabbi but i need kohen. why? it's a mesorah. my zaide was a kohen, my father was a kohen, my brothers are kohanim

A yid once came to Reb Michoel Forshlager Z"L [Toras Michoel- the gaon of Baltimore] and asked him how long do he needs to say kaddish for his Dad. Reb Michoel immediately answered, a year- twelve hebrew months. A talmid of Ner Israel who was standing there asked Reb Michoel [as soon as the guy left] why he said twelve months, everyone knows you only say kaddish for eleven. Reb Michoel's reply:

Gei dir Litvak! Vuss art dir az ah Yid vet leigen tefillin nuch ah choidesh?!

[this way he'll wear tefillin for another month...]

but back to the matter on hand

oink bah mooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo
