hey emu,

remember when you were the lawyer in that case of the blood libel?

(Disclaimer: this thread is in no way intended to make litzanos of any part of yiddishkeit, it is meant solely for the purpose of being mesameach yidden and giving anyone who needs a kosher outlet a place to write. thank you for your understanding and cooperation)

That was for 'practical kaballah' becs it had a reference to the Zohar in the middle of it.

But does anyone have a better place for me to stick that post? Please suggest.

Thanks for your help.

Simple truth. Refreshing question. I doubt he will answer you, tho. It just cuts too close to the center of the issue.

Does this have to do with zeir anpin?

Dov wrote:

I dreamt that there was the huge funeral procession out a balabos's window and he went out to see who it was for...made his way to the head of the line and asked the quiet guy at the casket who it was...he told him it was his mother-in-law. The balabos then asked him how she died and he told him that his dog just went and killed her. After a minute, the balabos asked him if he can borrow his dog.

The guy said, "Wait in the back of this line."

Boy, what a dream.

This is turning into Dov quotes...
