

Keep on Truckin'

Posted by tryingtoshteig - 22 Jul 2013 21:50

?? ??????

Why is "Truckin" always written chaser?

I would suggest, lifi anyius daati, that the vort is similar to the "machatzis hashekel" vort, i.e. even though we are continually making progress, we are never "there." Progress not perfection.

This mehalech is al pi poshut p'shat, but I am sure others here have deep thoughts on this sugya...

I think that the whole sheilah needs to start before that, for very rarely is there the whole line on the forum, it is mostly in Roshei Teivos, therefore we have to see what the roshei teivos really stand for and then we can ask.

That's really not so pashut. If there is no gimmel and you put one there, you won't be yotzei l'chol hasheetos*.Aderabbah you might be oiver bal tosef.

It's not a problem though.Because I don't care what lav it is, I don't do it for other reasons.

*take that moderator and how about a *uy like me who doesn't put any immels in whatsoever? I keep tryin to keep on truckin*, but sometimes it just *ets very difficult; thank od I am still bein successful, for I am lookin* at one moment at a time. Middle of the ni*ht, starin* or thinkin* of wife, and wonderin* why we not to*ether can make the moment last even lon*er, but that's the avodah now; and yes, it was me who put myself in this position in the first place, and I *otta look at the bri*ht side...I have thirty-five days now under my belt (sorry *uard), and od willin..many more to *o!

the Early Commentators speak about a similar scenario, albeit with more and larger doses of crazy

Tisha Bav is the gid hanasheh in the dimension of time (ayen Meor Einayim parshas Vayishlach). That is where Esav and his people grab onto us, at the hip. Tes is the 9th, which is yesod.

so if you would have the gimmel in there it would throw off the whole cheshbon. ????"

if you have any questions ask inna

Gimmel plus tes = 13

Yud gimmel middos.

only because of hashem's constant mercy are we still here.

If we fell then middas hadin demands us to be destroyed.

Because of hashem's middas harachamim we're still around.

Keep on trucking (N"a trukin') is only possible because of middas harachmim.

If we keep trukin' esav will never be able to grab our hips again.

I hope that this clears zemmy's vort up.
