Some funny quotes

"Why does Sea World have a seafood restaurant?? I'm halfway through my fish burger and I realize, Oh man....I could be eating a slow learner."

"I'm in no condition to drive...wait! I shouldn't listen to myself, I'm drunk!" -Homer J. Simpson

"I do not like broccoli. And I haven't liked it since I was a little kid and my mother made me eat it. And I'm President of the United States and I'm not going to eat any more broccoli." -George Bush.

"You have to stay in shape. My grandmother, she started walking five miles a day when she was 60. She's 97 today and we don't know where the heck she is."

"The pen is mightier than the sword, and considerably easier to write with."

"Sometimes I lie awake at night, and I ask, 'Where have I gone wrong?' Then a voice says to me, 'This is going to take more than one night.' "

"On my first day in New York a guy asked me if I knew where Central Park was. When I told him I didn't he said, 'Do you mind if I mug you here?'."

A joke

1)A young Jewish man was visiting a psychiatrist, hoping to cure his eating and sleeping disorder. "Every thought I have turns to my mother," he told the psychiatrist. "As soon as I fall asleep and begin to dream, everyone in my dream turns into my mother. I wake up so upset that all I can do is go downstairs and eat a piece of toast."

The psychiatrist replied, "What, just one piece of toast for a big boy like you?"

Which Yeshiva is the biggest in the world?

Yeshivas Mordechai Hazaddik.

Why is Yeshivas Mordechai Hazaddik so popular?

Due to the length of its Bein Hazmanim

The pews are full of people anxious to get the "Brooklyn-Style Kiddush" they were promised, ah the taste of the Rebbitzen's Kugel, ooh, it's even better than bubby's... Yet the Rabbi must drone on, and on, and on. Presently heads begin to nod off here and there. The rabbi sees his trump card must be played. In an animated tone he loudly proclaims.

"We must remember that we're not immortal! The day will come when we must face the great Lord! Everyone will die one day! Yes. Every single member of this congregation will die one day!"

That shocked most of the congregation out of their reveries, but the rabbi noticed someone in the back chuckling to himself apparently amused. "Do you not agree with what I said?" asked the rather surprised rabbi.

The man was in peals of laughter by now. "Rabbi" gasped he "I'm not a member!"

As that man grew older he started to forget. He wouldn't remember what people told him, or what he told other people. He would forget to change his shluff kappel, or would forget to put it on in the first place. He would go to the store to buy milk, but forget what he needed, so he would go home to find out, by the time he got home though he wouldn't remember what he came home for, etc.

Anyway, once his eineklach ("Rivki!! who's kids are these? and why are they calling me zeidi?!") were sitting around him, and he told them "you know kinderlach, there are three advantages of forgetting things"

They all looked at him with wonder, amazed that he had remembered that he forgets, and also very curious to hear what the advantages are.

"so here they are....." and a perplexed look comes across his face. "hmm....here what are?"

The kids look at each other and roll their eyes, "zeidi, you were going to tell us the advantages of forgetting"

"Oh yes, of course, silly me.

"well, the first is, that you are always meeting new people, and you can here the same joke a few times and laugh at it as if it was the first time hearing it!!

"The second one is.....hmmm....I forgot. Well there is one more, my favorite one!!

The kids looked at him eagerly, waiting to hear the wisdom that would come from their grandfather's mouth.

"The third advantage of forgetting is...

Dear Noah,

We could have sworn you said the ark wasn't leaving till 5.

Sincerely, Unicorns

Dear math,

Please grow up and solve your own problems. I don't have time for yours AND mine.

Sincerely, a student who has enough issues that he/she couldn't care less what "x" is

Dear Americans,

We totally agree with you about illegal immigration. Please allow us to show you to the nearest airport.

Sincerely, Native Americans

Dear people who complain about our generation,

Remember who raised us.

Sincerely, your kids

Dear 2011,

We thought you would have flying cars and robots by now, but congrats on the backwards robes and rubber bands shaped like animals...

Sincerely, 1950

Dear Board of Education,

So are we.

Sincerely, students everywhere

PS Learn how to spell

Dear SuperGlue and NonStick Pan,

One of you is lying...

Sincerely, here goes nothing.

Dear person reading this,

You're here because you're actively procrastinating or avoiding real work, aren't you? It's OK...me too.

Sincerely, I'll work tomorrow

Dear you,

After reading this you will realize the the brain does not process the second "the."

Sincerely, cool, eh?

Dear People who say money is made of paper which is made of wood which is made of trees so money grows on trees,

Money is actually made of cotton.

Sincerely, you fail at life.

Dear you,

After reading this you will realize the brain does not process the second "the."

Sincerely, made you look!

This guy was watching TV as his wife was out cutting the grass during the hot summer. He finally worked up the energy to go out and ask his wife what was for supper.

Well, his wife was quite irritated about him sitting in the air conditioned house all day while she did all the work, so she scolded him. "I can't believe you're asking me about supper right now! Imagine I'm out of town, go inside and figure dinner out yourself."

So, he went back in the house and fixed himself a big steak with potatoes, garlic bread and a tall glass of iced tea.

His wife finally walked in about the time he was finishing up and asked him, "You fixed something to eat? So, where's mine?"

"Huh? I thought you were out of town."

Services will be held at 10:00 AM tomorrow.

A Doctor was addressing a large audience:

"The material we put into our stomachs is enough to have killed most of us sitting here, years ago. Red meat is awful. Soft drinks corrode your stomach lining. Chinese food is loaded with MSG. High fat diets can be disastrous, and none of us realizes the long-term harm caused by the germs in our drinking water.

But there is one thing that is the most dangerous of all and we all have, or will, eat it. Can anyone here tell me what food it is that causes the most grief and suffering for years after eating it?"

After several seconds of quiet, a 75-year-old man in the front row raised his hand, and softly said, "Wedding Cake."

I have been in many places, but I've never been in Cahoots. Apparently, you can't go alone.

You have to be in Cahoots with someone.

I've also never been in Cognito. I hear no one recognizes you there. I have, however, been in Sane. They don't have an airport; you have to be driven there. I have made several trips there, thanks to my friends, family and work. I live close so it's a short drive

I would like to go to Conclusions, but you have to jump, and I'm not too much on physical activity anymore.

I have also been in Doubt. That is a sad place to go, and I try not to visit there too often.

I've been in Flexible, but only when it was very important to stand firm.

Sometimes I'm in Capable, and I go there more often as I'm getting older.

One of my favorite places to be is in Suspense! It really gets the adrenalin flowing and pumps up the old heart! At my age I need all the stimuli I can get!

And, sometimes I think I am in Vincible but life shows me I am not.

People keep telling me I'm in Denial but I'm positive I've never been there before!
