Some funny quotes

"Why does Sea World have a seafood restaurant?? I'm halfway through my fish burger and I realize, Oh man....I could be eating a slow learner."

"I'm in no condition to drive...wait! I shouldn't listen to myself, I'm drunk!" -Homer J. Simpson

"I do not like broccoli. And I haven't liked it since I was a little kid and my mother made me eat it. And I'm President of the United States and I'm not going to eat any more broccoli." -George Bush.

"You have to stay in shape. My grandmother, she started walking five miles a day when she was 60. She's 97 today and we don't know where the heck she is."

"The pen is mightier than the sword, and considerably easier to write with."

"Sometimes I lie awake at night, and I ask, 'Where have I gone wrong?' Then a voice says to me, 'This is going to take more than one night.' "

"On my first day in New York a guy asked me if I knew where Central Park was. When I told him I didn't he said, 'Do you mind if I mug you here?'."

A joke

1)A young Jewish man was visiting a psychiatrist, hoping to cure his eating and sleeping disorder. "Every thought I have turns to my mother," he told the psychiatrist. "As soon as I fall asleep and begin to dream, everyone in my dream turns into my mother. I wake up so upset that all I can do is go downstairs and eat a piece of toast."

The psychiatrist replied, "What, just one piece of toast for a big boy like you?"

Email blunder

It's wise to remember how easily email can be misused, sometimes unintentionally, with serious consequences.

Consider the case of the Illinois man who left the snow-filled streets of Chicago for a vacation in Florida. His wife was on a business trip and was planning to meet him there the next day. When he reached his hotel, he decided to send his wife a quick e-mail. Unable to find the scrap of paper on which he had written her e-mail address, he did his best to type it in from memory.

Unfortunately, he missed one letter and his note was directed instead to an elderly preacher's wife, whose husband had passed away only the day before.

When the grieving widow checked her e-mail, she took one look at the monitor, let out a piercing scream, and fell to the floor in a dead faint.

At the sound, her family rushed into the room and saw this note on the screen:

Dearest Wife, Just got checked in. Everything prepared for your arrival tomorrow.

Your Loving Husband PS.

Sure is hot down here.

Cord, chill, I try not to dupe too much - if your woodford reserves are depleted, maybe a cuppa ice tea will do the tri/uck

My comment was that you posted this same one before.

Obviously, you are regurgitatin' the old ones, but not your own, I thought.

In recent history I've only been listing my own. It's possible it may have been mentioned before (not in my name :-()), and actually that last sad joke I may have posted before - Sound like I'm getting old, a little insane?

Time to start the Joke #"97, no 1435" on the park bench with my buddies, and that will get them rolling...

There is a shaila in the poskim... if someone gets up from techiyas hamaysim, does he have to give his wife kidushin again...

Fool me once, shame on you, fool me twice, shame on me....

or as the saying goes:

Insanity is repeating the same stupid behavior over and over again and expecting a different result each time.

Some people find insanity funny (I don't)

Some think it's cool, like the author of 'men are from mars...' that remarried 3 or 4 times

Why do they put pictures of criminals up in the Post Office?

What are we supposed to do, write to them?

Why don't they just put their pictures on the postage stamps so the mailmen could look for them while they delivered the mail?

I thought about how mothers feed their babies with tiny little spoons and forks so I wondered, what do Chinese mothers use? Toothpicks?

It would be interesting to consider the possible scenarios if an Orthodox Jew should ever make it to the White House.....

- 1) State of The Union Address would end with an appeal
- 2) Air Force One grounded on Shabbos and Yom tovim, and seats reconfigured to allow space for minyan
- 3) Young Israel of Pennsylvania Avenue due to open across the street
- 4) Supreme Court justice's robes to be routinely checked for shatnez
- 5) mohel appointed Surgeon General
- 6) traditional Easter Egg Hunt on White House lawn replaced by bedikas chometz (or Kneidel Roll)
- 7) Israeli diplomats visiting White House for State dinners will have to pre order trefe meals, or risk having to eat glatt kosher with everyone else
- 8) First Lady's inaugural gown to be ordered with matching snood
- 9) National Prayer breakfast to conclude with ecumenical learning of Daf Yomi
- 10) Secret Service to confer with local Orthodox Rabbis to discuss feasibility of enclosing the White House and Capitol in a single eruv.

Think about it

Or rather - don't!

When you go into court you are putting yourself in the hands of 12 people that weren't even smart enough to get out of jury duty

Light travels faster than sound.

This is why some people appear bright until you hear them speak

The good old days:

Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day.

Teach a man to fish and he will sit in a boat drinking beer all day

The good new days:

Give a man a pizza and he will eat for a day.

Teach a man a job and he will surf all day

OMG Admin - if my boss happens to be logged on here, is there a way to hide that last joke from him?
