Some funny quotes

"Why does Sea World have a seafood restaurant?? I'm halfway through my fish burger and I realize, Oh man....I could be eating a slow learner."

"I'm in no condition to drive...wait! I shouldn't listen to myself, I'm drunk!" -Homer J. Simpson

"I do not like broccoli. And I haven't liked it since I was a little kid and my mother made me eat it. And I'm President of the United States and I'm not going to eat any more broccoli." -George Bush.

"You have to stay in shape. My grandmother, she started walking five miles a day when she was 60. She's 97 today and we don't know where the heck she is."

"The pen is mightier than the sword, and considerably easier to write with."

"Sometimes I lie awake at night, and I ask, 'Where have I gone wrong?' Then a voice says to me, 'This is going to take more than one night.' "

"On my first day in New York a guy asked me if I knew where Central Park was. When I told him I didn't he said, 'Do you mind if I mug you here?'."

A joke

1)A young Jewish man was visiting a psychiatrist, hoping to cure his eating and sleeping disorder. "Every thought I have turns to my mother," he told the psychiatrist. "As soon as I fall asleep and begin to dream, everyone in my dream turns into my mother. I wake up so upset that all I can do is go downstairs and eat a piece of toast."

The psychiatrist replied, "What, just one piece of toast for a big boy like you?"

And will find out how much patience their husbands have. Dinner had better be ready on time 2020 wasn't a completely waste.

At least we lowered heart disease deaths, pneumonia deaths, and completely eradicated the flu. - 2020 has been a year of medical miracles.

Apparently you believe in the ~~medical~~ insurance industry COVID Fake news.

In actuality it's a total fabrication.

2020 was absolutely full of blessings.

People need to stop all the stupid negativity and Make Appreciation Great Again.

GO MAGA GO!!!

Dr Fauci recommends wearing 2 masks.

The CDC deliberated and published a 3 mask recommendation!!!

A young woman visits her parents and brings her fiancé to meet them. After an elaborate dinner, the mother tells her husband to find out about the young man. The father invites the fiancée to his library for a drink. So what are your plans? The father asks the young man. I am a Torah scholar. He says. A Torah scholar, Hmmm, the father says. Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in, as she is accustomed to? I will study, the young man said, and God will provide for us. And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves? asks the father. I will concentrate on my studies, the young man replies, God will provide for us. And children? asks the father. How will you support children? Dont worry, sir, God will provide, replies the fiancé. The conversation continues like this, and each time the father questions, the young idealist insist that God will provide. Later, the mother asks, How did it go, Honey? The father answers, He has no job and no plans, but the good news is he thinks I'm God.

I have been reading through some of the pages of this thread. I am literally on the floor laughing!!

Does that mean I am depressed??

keep on reading!

when i first found this thread and was also laughing my head off ,if a thought of lust entered my head i pushed it out without any effort since i was in such a "high" from the jokes, i realized then that i probably fall due to escaping feelings of sadness ,thats when i realized that if i can labor to gain a happy mind with accomplishing good things (like the good old days) it might be a cure to my lusting, and you know what, on days that my mood is good and happy and i feel accomplished ,i have a hope to saying no to the lust.

Rabbi Neuberger Shlita in his great artscroll english sefer ,Positive vision ,writes something to that effect that when we are sad we tend to look for forbidden pleasures as an escape.and that explained something written in Chasidishe seforim which i never understood , that when one is biatzvus, that strengthens the forces of impurity on onesself ,and i thought it was always a "kabala"ist idea which one cant understand , but thats how it is but after reading Positive Vision , i realized that its just a natural human instinct for a person to run to impurity thinking that this will save himself from the depressing thoughts,and sometimes it does dispel the thoughts of sadness, but Oy !the hangover afterwards...

Just ignore the whole karma thing. Somehow it got turned off by me, and i never requested that they turn it back on.

"Somehow it got turned off by me ..."

the gye system automaticaly turns off the karmas from certain members when it starts hitting a 6 digit karma number .
