

Greetings

Posted by Pidaini - 07 Jan 2014 22:58

Being on chat for quite some time, I've been running short of interesting ways to start a chat with someone and especially with someone I chat with everyday!!!

"Hi"....I mean, that's just boring!! I could type it in my sleep already!! "hello" is a bit more challenging in the middle of the sleep, as I could never keep count of how many times I've already typed the "I", but it's just as boring.

So I ask my fellow GYERs to please help me with some new interesting ways to start a chat.

Thnaks!!

"don't look now but Godzilla just stopped behind you and is getting ready to whack you with his 2-liter bottle of Orangeaid" works best

Well, you're not going to believe what happened!!

I got a few ideas already....ONLY IN CHAT!!!

Well, first of all, it won't end up being a long chat if the other guy gets whacked like that...

Second, why does he have orangeaid? where's the WOODFORD?!

If you find out where you can find a 2-liter (litre?) bottle of WOODFORD, let me know....

I don't think they ever made one that size, but here's a 1.75 liter bottle, made into a lamp!

...and if that's not enough to keep you warm today, this one is 4.5 liters!

I don't mean to be rude, but woodford is a bourbon, have you tried a real scotch, a pure malt?
