Welcome,

We don't know much about you.

Are you here for happiness?

Are you strugglin' with anythin'?

It can be difficult bein' happy in certain circumstances; some try to look at the positives in their life. Some try to see how they can change some aspects of their life. Some turn to God, and ultimately are mesameach bichelko. It's not simple, but tell us please....what's goin' on?

second, is it marbiN or marbiM?

Here on GYE it is Marbi', that way we are yotzei all the shiiiitos (???? ?????? ???"?

i think this year we should go for the

jim beam

instead of the woodford

Hi Chaim,

Why don't you tell us more about what is going on? You are among friends.

My Rebi used to say that when the kids were making noise his father would walk in and say Meshenichnas Av mahtin biSimcha. When the father walks in

When ever Av comes around and everyone is afraid to be happy, it never seems right to me. In Adar we said Meshinichnas Adar Marbin BiSimcha. Did we ever say to go back down? No, not until Av. They in Av we say mahtin bisimcha. So we are then back to a regular level of simcha.

Likewise, it's no mitzvah to be sad during the month of Av. We only need to decrease in our joy. For the only way to serve Hashem is by being b'simcha; it is impossible to serve Hashem properly when one is sad.

i heard a great explanation on the word ???

what is the meaning of ????

because just like when someone walks in tisha baav with a platter of meat and a bottle of wine with music, everybody would instantly jump on him

"THE SAME" if someone walks in, in adar with a long nose or a sad face, everybody should jump on him and shout "YOU DONT GO AROUND LIKE THAT IN ADAR!"

A question for Gibbor120 , dear friend i was wondering about the little guy in your username that is lifting weights non stop , i mean doesnt he ever gets tired ? and another question , he reminds me about Moshe's burning bush that doesnt consume . After all this weight lifting he remains small and skinny doesnt he ever develops some muscles after all this time ?

When our Rosh Yeshiva would chide us for slacking off in our learning during the summer months we would remind him of his Adar shmuess " ??? ????? ??? ????? ". So ?????? ?? ?????? ????? also means less learning!

Seriously, Purim was always a big trigger for me, costumes, mingling, drinking etc. even thinking about the Vashti scene!

Since joining this site a couple months ago I think I can deal with Purim as I do any other day.... One hour at a time! I can step away from lustful thoughts and encounters instead of fighting them with righteous zeal. Maybe I can finally achieve a modicum of real Simcha this Purim.

Thanks to all of you!!

I really mean it.
