

The GYE World Council

Posted by inastruggle - 02 Dec 2014 23:02

The goal of this thread is to have a place where we can post situations and ideas for world peace or world domination (depending on what mood we're in), or any other problem that plagues us (~~like Ferguson~~). After the idea is presented, the oilam can comment on what the ramifications of the idea might be, and eventually we can vote it into being, or veto it into oblivion (like ferguson).

I asked Bigmoish and Skeptical for ideas on the first issue to be decided by the council and a number of ideas were suggested:

~~Ferguson~~

Hot weather

Cold weather

Pareve cholent

People who answer their phones while davening for the amud

Enough sleep

~~Ferguson~~

Global warming

"The guy you think is the Baal Tefilla because he davens loud but isn't, which causes confusion"

Global warming's seeming inability to global warm

traffic

All the things mentioned in "a million things that bug me" by calvin, as follows: (REMOVED BY ZEMMY due to the pending lawsuit of Bill Watterson vs. The GYE council for world domination,)

And last, but never least, (cause I'm not racist),

~~FERGUSON~~

It's up to the council to decide what to pursue first, and to add ideas as they think of them.

Let the GYE council begin!

Before each night is done

Their plan will be unfurled

By the dawning of the sun

They'll take over the world

Maybe we can discuss whether the world would be a better place if no one used the letter g when typing or if we can bring down the price of woodford.

another pressing issue, how to eat a falafel with some semblance of self respect (without the whole thing erupting like Mt.Vesuvius and landing on your shirt, the floor and guy sitting behind you)

The trick is to ask for less techina

Surrender the techina, the only way to keep what you've been given is to give it away.

This conclusion was forced upon me in the crucible of my experience...

Why not put it in a plate and eat with fork and knife like a gentleman.

I'm embarrassed that that didn't even occur to me. I think I left my brains in my other top hat.

I guess a falafel addict cannot eat falafel like a gentleman.

I think they should put the tablecloths over the people instead of on the table, since people tend to get more dirty than the table. Ugly people can put it over their faces, too, and it solves another problem. In fact, if everyone wore these tablecloths, we wouldn't have a problem with racism anymore. So therefore, I propose to the council a compulsory tablecloth-wearing edict for all police officers and (rioting civilians) of the town of Ferguson: Wear tablecloths over your faces!
