Posted by peloni almoni - 12 Aug 2015 03:54

cornography n, [kor-nog-ruh-fee] - an intense display of corny or clever jokes, commonly used in various kinds of recovery side effects of viewing cornographic images will include laughter, rolling of the eyes, the occasional snort, and general irritation. extreme cases were known to include diarrhea, coughing, vomiting, and well...

[spoiler]/[spoiler]

if you experience any symptoms for more than 4 hours, you're welcome.

HISTORY OF CORNOGRAPHY - i am a firm believer in this. and i am sick and tired of posting on other people's forsaken "just having fun" threads that cordnoy keeps reviving from the dead. i am getting increasingly depressed by posting on the depressed person's chill spot, and i feel like i already ate and digested all the "chulint" i could handle. hell, i even made an ??? ???

sooooo, i am starting my own blog, that will, at least for some time, be updated and active, but hopefully be interactive. i encourage everyone to PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE help, as humor therapy should be a group effort. you all have talent - I'VE SEEN IT.

~~cordnoy~~cordnoy is so good at it, that if this were a corny army, i would appoint him ...

Warning: Spoiler!

rabbosai, the indians called corn "maize". they must have thought corny jokes were just "amazing". but my motto for this blog is - NO JOKE IS TOO STUPID. you have my word that i will at least try to laugh at every attempt at humor that anyone makes here. feel good that you may be giving me or someone else chizuk - or at least you will be annoying "the urge" right out of them.

so friends. romans, countrymen, give me your EARS of corn...

BRING OUT THE POPCORN, LET THE SHOW BEGIN...

[zemmy, if you're reading this, let it never be said that i do not take my ????? seriously. ?' ??

So on Pesach, this Jewish guy takes his lunch to eat outside in the park. He sits down on a bench and begins to eat.

A little while later a blind man comes and sits down next to him. Feeling kind, the Jewish guy passes a matzo to the blind man. The blind man handled the matzo for a few minutes, looked puzzled, and finally exclaimed, "Who wrote this sh?"

clever picture should be here. cannot post it here due to terrible new editor. please see next post.

Bloomberg Limits Seder Portions

NEW YORK - Following his recent ban on soda containers over 16 ounces, Mayor Michael Bloomberg has announced that he now intends to place similar limits on wine and matzo consumption at Passover seders.

"Everyone knows that Jews struggle with obesity," the mayor declared at a news conference yesterday at Gracie Mansion, "so why aggravate the problem by drinking four whole cups of wine and eating three large sheets of matzo at a single meal?"

Noting that the Passover foods are a Jewish tradition dating back thousands of years, the mayor said, "That may be so, but look at the health problems they create. You eat all that unleavened bread, and your system is bound to get backed up. It's no wonder Moses was pleading, 'Let my people go.' "

Bloomberg added, "No one needs that much wine at a meal, either."

In a surprising display of erudition in Jewish law, the mayor said he was familiar with, and opposed to, the adherence to the strictest requirements encouraged by some Torah sages.

"If you intend to adhere to the shiurim of the Chazzon Ish, or even Rabbi Moses Feinstein, take your Seder out of the City," said a defiant Bloomberg.

He outlined his restrictions as follows:

For the drinking of the four cups - "3.3. oz. will be the maximum permitted under New York City law. You may think 5.3 ounces is a saintly amount to drink for each of your 4 cups, but it is overly burdensome on the NYPD when they have to haul your machmir tuchus off to detox.

For the Eating of Matzoh - "No more than the size of 1/3 of an egg, measured by weight and not volume. You will be subject to citation or arrest if you feel the need to stuff half of a 'Talmudic' egg in your mouth and choking on your high halachic standards."

The Mayor then left the press conference angrily, turning only to add,

"Next year in Jerusalem. IF you can fit on the plane!"

Several Jewish organizations have already filed lawsuits in Brooklyn courts, claiming that the mayor's new proposal infringes upon their religious rights. Rabbi Chaim Dovid Zwieback, legal counsel Agood Israel and author of the book When Abbada Things Happen to Agooda People, said, "Instead of downsizing seder foods, the mayor should be increasing them, like donating his nuts to make more charoses"

except that a kazayis of matza by weight (28 grams) is significantly more than a kazayis of matza by volume. and the smallest shiur of a reviiis min hadin is 2.9 oz. but i dont expect mark bloomberg to know that.

I don't mind.

It will probably at least be an intelligent, mature and trucking/toilet-free discussion.

What more can I ask for?

Claudine Zap

Your toilet could be a ticking time bomb. A problem with flushing mechanisms that causes toilets to explode has prompted a recall of 2.3 million toilets in the U.S. and 9,400 in Canada.

There have already been 304 complaints of exploding devices bursting, causing 14 "impact or laceration injuries," according to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Flushmate, the company that installed the faulty flusher, has established a website for customers to enter the serial number of their toilets to find out if they need to replace their toilet. They can also receive a repair kit.

According to the company, "The affected Flushmate III Series 503 units can burst at or near the vessel weld seam releasing stored pressure. This pressure can lift the tank lid and shatter the tank, posing impact or laceration hazards to consumers and property damage."

Products with the bad flusher include toilets from Home Depot and Lowes, and those made from 1997-2008 by "American Standard, Crane, Kohler, Eljer, Mansfield, St. Thomas and Gerber."

A Las Vegas woman filed a lawsuit earlier this month against Flushmate, the Los Angeles Times reports. The complaint claims that the repair kit failed to fix her faulty toilet and seeks class-action suit status
