

Is anyone in touch with Zemiros Shabbos

Posted by markz - 19 Nov 2015 04:16

I'm a chassid of his jokes site wide

There should be a steep settlement fee for any great humor trucker that thinks of posting their jokes on other websites, and a $90,000 fine if leaving this website for good (bad)

I don't claim to be very funny, so I myself am free to go when I wish

I know there's lots of humor going around, but the following I'm saying and I'm dead serious

I have corresponded with many a moderator and I can tell you, the ones I've interacted with are great

CORDNOY, SKEP!!!

Then there are these moderators that believe in strict anonymity - you see their names at bottom of each forum, but they are Nowhere to be seen!

My question is how long is your submarine surfacin' for?
