

Testing the new editor

Posted by the.guard - 03 Feb 2016 12:57

Amazing new editor, even for quick responses. wow. isn't this cool guys?

What I mean is that when I'm using the editor on any other thread besides this one it looks completely different, and it is even different than it was yesterday.

I also have have to press source on other threads in order for my post not to be included as part of the other persons post.

You mean to say that only this thread works right, for some reason, but all other threads on the forum don't?

That sounds weird... Can you send a screenshot of what you see to gye.help@gmail.com please?

Full reply also just pops up on the page instead of loading a new page. Much quicker. kishmo kach hu. If you could get full functionality on quick reply - that would be great.

Some times when i post lowercase,

it leaves vowels out.

like so. I shml wll b tstng ths nw dtr.

WHAT I WROTE WAS I SHMULY WILL BE TESTING THIS NEW EDITOR.

i know PA has been yelling and complaining. I am as well. GUARD... FOR THE LOVE OF

LOX...PLEASE GIVE US THE OLD EDITOR BACK. Thanks

SShhmmuullyy

this too happens with my name and certain words.

Damn editor has gone us haywire.

New editor eats my data :-(

Has anyone experienced the same?

The new editor uses 20MB of data per post which essentially caps a limit in my phone to write no more than 1 1/2 posts a day

I have a 1000MB data plan

If I post 39 posts, or 1 1/2 posts a day I have used 780 MB of data

Can we have the old editor back please

I had to go onto a PC to write this, as my Data allowance is maxed out :-(

I have been having this problem that when I post a red message comes up that says "There is no user ID 14250" what on earth is that?

I've seen it too.

We now have a beis din.

This is a serious problem.

I propose creating a user named 14250.

All in favor?

On the other hand maybe this is a mystical problem.

Does anyone know what 14250 is the gematriyah of?

It's a guy that joined April 12

No idea who No idea where No idea why

we all get that message

Are any of you on iPhone?
