Embarrassing things we all do and think Posted by Grant400 - 07 Aug 2020 06:17

I realized that most of the embarrassing things we do, we all do. I figured it would be funny if I listed some and any of you can share yours and we can all get a good laugh realizing we all do the same stuff:

- 1) "Klapping" selach on shabbos by mistake and immediately opening our hand and scratching our chest and arm for a really long time, maybe even sliding to other places like "oh! This itch wont let up!" Same with kissing our tefillin during krias shema by maariv.
- 2) When I daven for the amud I always check my phone or listen to the guy next to me to make sure I'm saying the right "yom" before blurting out the ending, even though I already know what day it is.
- 3) When we get caught staring through the car next to us's window we carefully continue to look in the same direction, just missing eye contact...like, "I wasnt looking at you pick your nose- I was intently staring directly at the spot of bird stuffs on the hood of your car"!

When you're in the middle seat on the plane and you don't want to wake up the lady next to you but you REALLY need the bathroom but you dont even know HOW to wake her up and you wish that you would had the guts to ask to switch seats but you were afraid of making a stink and whatever and you REALLY need the bathroom and then she wakes up and goes to use the bathroom and you're waiting in the aisle and trying not to dance until the dratted lady gets out.
