

Parsha from a two year old!

Posted by wilnevergiveup - 31 Jan 2021 08:52

In spirit of having a little fun, and being that a sense of humor is not one of my strong points, I have turned to my two year old for some help. Every week she comes home from gan and delightfully tells me all about the parsha in her two year old way.

Feel free to add your own "two year old" comments and they don't have to be on the parsha either, this ain't the "Bais Medrash" section.

This week my daughter came home and proudly proclaimed "Moshe split the Yam suf!"

"The yidden thanked Hashem for the big mess!"

=====

Re: Parsha from a two year old!

Posted by wilnevergiveup - 31 Jan 2021 12:36

Me: What did the Yidden sing when they came out of the Yam Suf?

Two year old: Mah Nishtanah!

=====

Re: Parsha from a two year old!

Posted by #makelifegreatagain - 31 Jan 2021 18:59

HA!

this reminds me of what I hear at work, since I work at a preschool with 2 and 3 year olds. If I hear any good Divrei torah from them I'll post them here!

=====

Re: Parsha from a two year old!

Posted by eyes - 01 Feb 2021 19:05

Today, i asked my son not to use his lego to make a stick/gun. but to pretend he is making matzah for the yidden going out of mitzrayim/

So he looked at me and said, did the yidden throw sticks on the ground and matzah was made?

My son is BH 3 years old

=====

Re: Parsha from a two year old!

Posted by wilnevergiveup - 08 Mar 2021 05:05

Here are some random ones.

Mommy, can you put meatball sauce on my pancakes?

Warning: Spoiler!

Mommy: Soon we are going on a bridge.

2 year old: Where is the fridge!

I hear so many fireforks!

=====

=====