This actually happened with someone He was davening Shabbos night and instead of saying the correct number 10 he said 11. So the whole congregation screamed " its the 11th" and nobody was able to say the bracha!

Someone was playing a really intense game of hide-and-seek. He couldn't find anyone after searching for a while. Finally as a last ditch effort he called out:

"!!???? ????? ????? ??? ?????? ?????? ????? ?? ???"

?And naturally everyone jumped out and screamed:

"!!????"
