

The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

Posted by youknowwho - 08 Mar 2024 15:01

Speaking to a few friends offline gave birth to this idea, it seems to be an urgent and immediate necessity.

Welcome to...The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

This thread is a place where one can feel free to rant, vent and gripe.

It is a safe haven for negativity, sourness and blahness.

It is a place where one can be sure to find a healthy dose of demotivating advice. It is a place where any kind of positivity is strictly forbidden.

It is a place where you can vent about what a rotten day you're having and not worry that people will then reach out with concerned pm's/texts...cuz nobody really cares. And that's perfectly fine, why should anybody care?

Please Remember:

-No profanity (Sadly)

-No personal insults (Sadly)

- Absolutely no: Nice, positive, warm, loving, optimistic, motivational, supportive or inspiring posts. (Not sadly)

Enter at your own risk!

Erev shabbas was tough for me too.

Had an important appointment, wife asked me to meet her there on time. But I got caught up in the office and left a bit too late. I was already frantic, knowing good and well that I will barely make it.

But what happened next was straight out of a comedy show. Literally EVERY SINGLE THING that could possibly go wrong, went wrong.

Starting with an ABSOLUTE SHMUCK in front of me, who generously waved a monster size tractor trailer truck ahead of him, he held up traffic so that the trailer could make a left. He waved nicely and courteously to the truck driver, and drove off the main road not long afterwards. Leaving me, stuck behind the truck, cussing darkly to myself. Why? Why?

I missed every single light. Lost a lot of time. FINALLY the trailer pulls off, and I thought I was free. Nope. The car in front of me was a misery, driving below the speed limit. I was frantically eyeballing the clock, I knew my wife would not be happy with me.

At the next right, a woman in front of me was signaling left, but the last second swerved right, still with those blasted blinkers blinking left. And she was the queen who stole the show, driving like a total idiot. I kept veering side to side like a maniac to try and overtake her but was thwarted by oncoming traffic at every opportunity.

By now, I was beaten. Okay, G-d. Okay. You win. I stared ahead, totally drained.

The ending doesn't belong here, but I have to share it. When I finally arrived 15 minutes late, my wife was standing right behind someone in the line. She mouthed to me: "You arrived JUST in the nick of time".

I was about to snort for you & at you, Whydja have to go and ruin the whole story with a H*p*y e*di*ng?

You are totally right, red. The ending does not belong in The Grouchery, I knew someone would take issue! I will do better next time!

On a nastier note, your new avatar is , well....quite.....friendly. Happy. Touchy feely. Warm and fuzzy.

I love it, mwah!

90 days, 91 days... who even cares?!

I don't know why I was expecting a massive party in my backyard with balloons, streamers and confetti when I enter the hall. But who really cares?

Lort Voldemort- (im not afraid),

You are a genius for opening this thread, I have so much to piss about.

Why cant i get rid of these dumb lust fantasies?

Im so stupid for even thinking about it.

My Chavrusa learns much more then i do every day, he is the owner of a successful business and he very well off, what the hell is wrong with me?

I can never keep up with him in learning even though im learning it for the 3rd time and he is learning it the 1st time. Im really stupid.

Why am i still stuck in this stupid job? because my brain is too dumb to think of anything?

B'kitzer, you get my point. Everyone has what to kvetch for. Otherwise life would be very boring indeed.

Truthfully, I accept everything in my life, Im %1,000 sure that its all for the good. Hashem loves me unconditionally and only does good things! So im ok with myself and my situation.

There is a new breed of grouch here on GYE one that ends their grouch on a positive note, what happened to the good old days when a grouch was just a grouch and remained a grouch
