

The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

Posted by youknowwho - 08 Mar 2024 15:01

Speaking to a few friends offline gave birth to this idea, it seems to be an urgent and immediate necessity.

Welcome to...The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

This thread is a place where one can feel free to rant, vent and gripe.

It is a safe haven for negativity, sourness and blahness.

It is a place where one can be sure to find a healthy dose of demotivating advice. It is a place where any kind of positivity is strictly forbidden.

It is a place where you can vent about what a rotten day you're having and not worry that people will then reach out with concerned pm's/texts...cuz nobody really cares. And that's perfectly fine, why should anybody care?

Please Remember:

-No profanity (Sadly)

-No personal insults (Sadly)

- Absolutely no: Nice, positive, warm, loving, optimistic, motivational, supportive or inspiring posts. (Not sadly)

Enter at your own risk!

you won't finish ever...

none of us will ever finish. we are doomed to ingest chametz on pesach one way or another and get kares because G-d loves us so much

There's a big pile of laundry on my kitchen/dining room (same thing for me) table. Box of Raisin Bran right next to it.

Another load of laundry to be sorted either to the dryer or the hanging rack (BOOOOOOOO).

Y'all are grumping about pesach issues. Let's take a step back and grump about pre-pesach issues.

Why the heck have I been eating random foods just because it's chametz and we need to get rid off it! I'm basically living on chametz baby crackers now.

Till you yell at me, its utterly worthless. And I was in a good mood until lunch time too. Than I sat in a parking lot waiting for my wife, somewhere in the neighborhood of 2 hours. #owlpoop

I stubbed my toe earlier today. Broke it. Now I have to walk around with a grouch-inducing shoe thingy just to make sure it doesn't heal awkwardly. (Unlike my other three previously stubbed toes that all are now crooked.)

It wasn't even a cool story, I just walked into the Doona! Like, if I need to go through the pain and grouching, at least let it be dramatic!! But nooo, just normal, ol life stuff.
