

The Infiniti is in The Beyond...

I've gotten my Grouch out. The Infiniti is in The Beyond. (It even says that in the thread title.)

If anybody's confused, I'm referring to my car, a'h, which has been officially totaled. It is (or was, sigh) an Infiniti, and its nickname is/was The Infiniti And Beyond.

So what am I doing here? I need a nickname for the new car. Any suggestions?

Bro if you want your wife to shudder from the name: "Expensive Item I Will Probably Total Again." But that's a little long for everyday use.

Dudes, there are some decent ideas.

But I want dark humor names. I want my wife to shudder when she hears it.

How about calling it Tzitzis Dude?
