

Bardy's Pub

Posted by Cry2Tatty - 24 Jan 2010 17:16

Welcome my friends to bardy's pub...it's kinda like a depressed persons chill spot for guys who like to drink...tell us what you're drinking what you drank and what you'd like to drink...

I'll start...this shabbos I had a chianti italian wine made of sanginovese grapes...it was a 2008 and tasted immature...it had an acidic finish that's a staple of the tuscanny region...it was a cute wine and I enjoyed it because I wasn't expecting a big bold taste...Friday night I had 3 shots of the balvenie 18 year while playing backgammon with mrs rage after the meal...then at 830 I poured myself a glass of about 5 ounces woodford and had a lechayim with all of u...shabbat after shul I had a glass of grey goose with my chulent eggs and a pre nap glass of woodford...over all it was a nice shabbos...

If ya come to old grandpy's house and help move away the gas range for Pesach cleaning, you may find some mouldy possums or some relatives thereof.

Shabbos is coming, we're so happy.

We're gonna drink and shout out loud.

I'm looking forward to Death's Door Gin and tonic, noch di chulent. Not a particularly propitious patronymic, I know. But I guess its a good reminder not to slip.

L'chaim y'all!!!

I was passing by Bardy's Pub the other day and noticed a sign hanging outside. It read: SIP
DON'T SLIP!

A sip is a slip...

I thought every time we refrain from a slip (of lust), we were supposed to celebrate with a sip (of mashkeh) and say L'chaim. Hmm. Maybe I had this all wrong.

Ok...

Kiddush was on Baron Herzog Chenin Blanc (Some of the BH are makpid on re'ias akum, btw)

L'chaim was on Michter's (a great whiskey that I just tried for the first time)

Beer during the seudah was a run of the mill boring Corona.

I skipped the Death's Door because we were out of tonic and lime juice.

Anybody else?
