Welcome my friends to bardy's pub...it's kinda like a depressed persons chill spot for guys who like to drink...tell us what you're drinking what you drank and what you'd like to drink...

I'll start...this shabbos I had a chianti italian wine made of sanginovese grapes...it was a 2008 and tasted immature...it had an acidic finish that's a staple of the tuscanny region...it was a cute wine and I enjoyed it because I wasn't expecting a big bold taste...Friday night I had 3 shots of the balvenie 18 year while playing backgammon with mrs rage after the meal...then at 830 I poured myself a glass of about 5 ounces woodford and had a lechayim with all of u...shabbat after shul I had a glass of grey goose with my chulent eggs and a pre nap glass of woodford...over all it was a nice shabbos...

Honestly now

I am turning to you, dear members of our pub, seeking guidance and counsel. I am one of those non-drinkers, and in seeking to be mekayeim the mitzva of "libsumai bipuraya" I am at a loss. Which wine, red or white, dry or sweet? A brand? I was thinking of writng a kuntrus copiling all my sefaikos, but I just couldn't think of a title (Ok that one was a corny attempt at humor).

Advise?

ps I never drank any hard liquer, and I have to have someone else buy my wine for me, long story, and yes I am of legal age. So I need to have what to tell him!

I feel your pain! Sweet wine mixed with soda is practically the only way i can ingest alcohol.

Of the Rebbe Shlit"a I ask: "Biz tzi di kretchma darf men oich ah glezele mashke". Which brand do you recommend for this purpose?

It is an old chasidishe saying, "until we get to the Pub, we also need some whiskey." (i.e. Until we get to Yom Kippur we also need some Teshuvah)

I drink only slighty sweet white wine. I can tolerate that, and I usualy have a cup by every shabbos meal, in order to be yotzei the inyanim of utilizing the koach of yayin together with the kedushas shabbos. I also wait for a part of the meal that I am guaranteed to use the newfound kochos only letovah ulemitzvah.

Wich means that I am the last one at the table, feiring tisch for a group of enthralled highschool kids wondering how they can also get so into it! At first people made fun, but when they saw I am serious, they kept shut, and stopped preventing people from joining. (I don't make a tisch, I just sing with my eyes closed, and whomever joins can sing watch or just bask in the kedusha)

That's the only wine I drink, and it's a "Jedem" brand.

So I think I need something light, without so much flavor or aftertaste. And as far as woodford...I want yayin, in addition to never have drunk any hard liquer in my life. Are you tryingto kil me?

Neee! We should all suffer from such hashpoo-oo.

It's my recent hungarish pronunciation that worries me, though.....Where's Khaleed, we need to talk this over.

But thanks for the concern, amigo!
