

Bardy's Pub

Posted by Cry2Tatty - 24 Jan 2010 17:16

Welcome my friends to bardy's pub...it's kinda like a depressed persons chill spot for guys who like to drink...tell us what you're drinking what you drank and what you'd like to drink...

I'll start...this shabbos I had a chianti italian wine made of sanginovese grapes...it was a 2008 and tasted immature...it had an acidic finish that's a staple of the tuscanny region...it was a cute wine and I enjoyed it because I wasn't expecting a big bold taste...Friday night I had 3 shots of the balvenie 18 year while playing backgammon with mrs rage after the meal...then at 830 I poured myself a glass of about 5 ounces woodford and had a lechayim with all of u...shabbat after shul I had a glass of grey goose with my chulent eggs and a pre nap glass of woodford...over all it was a nice shabbos...

Nu, Nu, Don't say Hashem's name like that.

Say Ginger-Keil.

Besides, that is what I drank as a kid when I had a stomachache. By now I have other aches.

In the British branch is where I would expect to find men sitting around drinking ale. Newcastle Brown Ale is world famous, at least in the ale-drinking-world.

If I recall correctly, Liverpool has its own brand too.

This past Shabbos Pinchus 'Pinto' Greenberg walked into the Farbrengen which takes place in the small Zal of upstairs 770 and announced that "Nisbatla Hagzairah!" [the decree has been lifted], and they no longer have to travel to New Jersey to purchase their coveted Rineh Mashke!

Cake from Pinto's B-day... ;D
