

Bardy's Pub

Posted by Cry2Tatty - 24 Jan 2010 17:16

Welcome my friends to bardy's pub...it's kinda like a depressed persons chill spot for guys who like to drink...tell us what you're drinking what you drank and what you'd like to drink...

I'll start...this shabbos I had a chianti italian wine made of sanginovese grapes...it was a 2008 and tasted immature...it had an acidic finish that's a staple of the tuscanny region...it was a cute wine and I enjoyed it because I wasn't expecting a big bold taste...Friday night I had 3 shots of the balvenie 18 year while playing backgammon with mrs rage after the meal...then at 830 I poured myself a glass of about 5 ounces woodford and had a lechayim with all of u...shabbat after shul I had a glass of grey goose with my chulent eggs and a pre nap glass of woodford...over all it was a nice shabbos...

You are going to have to offer danishes along with the drinks if you want me to join.

The last time I drank anything (other than kiddush) was when flying back from Japan, I couldn't fall asleep on the plane. I drank a can of beer and I was out like a light for the rest of the flight.

Is it OK to drink whisky in the 3 weeks?

Does it make a difference if it is an Oychentoshan, which may help to remind us of the churban?

Also does anyone have a good recipe for parev cholent?

I know we can eat meat next Shabbos, but some of us just can't wait 7 days for our next fix!!!!

In the 9 days, we're only supposed to be mimayet b'simcha.

Does that count for anything?....or does the still-1/4-full bottle of Woodford in the server cabinet call out loudly to you, my friend?
