

Yerushalayim snif of "Bardy's pub"

Ok, for all us Israelis who can't keep up with the American 8:30 L'chaim (3:30 for us), we are making an official Eretz Yisroel L'chaim for all GYE members here.

We'll call it for 8:15

All those davening by R' Tzvi Mayer have a chance to get done with their fish.

For those davening by R' Itche Mayer, I'm afraid you will have to be yotzei the L'chaim with Kiddush.

And for those davening in the shteeblach, you can have to have your L'chaim with the ice cream.

Can I have some Spam, Spam, Spam, Spam, Spam, Spam, Spam, eggs and Spam?

(I figured I'd ask here cuz Mottel would never serve something so high in protein and fat)

Gvaot, Cabernet Reserve 2009

Oak-aged for 16 months, showing full-bodied with still gripping near-sweet tannins and spicy wood in fine balance with fruits but needing a bit of time to settle down. Opens in the glass to reveal generous blackcurrants, blackberries and bitter citrus peel on a background that hints at one moment of baking chocolate and at another of espresso. Long and firm but not at all aggressive.
