ya' know, cheese goes with wine, wine goes with France...

so rebbe when is the grand opening of Bardy's Pub a la France?

AHM can scoot over through the tunnel for a quick bite of cheese and be back in time for the lorrying in the morning....

Dear Fellow Jew

Even though the current economic situation is very tough for all of us, we turn to you for help for a Chosson who just recently got engaged. His whole life nebach has been one of great tragedy, his parents were divorced when he was still a young child and when he was just eighteen years old his mother was a passenger in a car that was involved in major accident and unfortunately died as a result of the injuries she sustained.

Due to his family situation he had no other choice other than to join the army, and now at the age of twenty-eight after many years of hardship and great difficulty he has finally found his zivug.

We trust you won't turn him away in his time of greatest need.
